Olhão - Portugal

Located east of Faro, in the Eastern Algarve, Olhão, is one of the places overlooking the stunning landscapes of the Ria Formosa and is considered one of the 7 wonders of Portugal. Land of fishermen, with rudimentary boats, white houses with cubist architecture, fish and vegetable markets and a panoramic view of the small islands that protect the estuary from the sea, make the location of this development a unique place where the simple moments of life truly have meaning .

It is one of the four favorite birdwatching destinations in Portugal and the ideal place to rest, reflect and enjoy the vast beaches of fine sand and warm water.

Here you can also relax while enjoying the marina, the most beautiful golf courses in the Algarve and even practice extreme sports such as canoeing, windsurfing and sailing.
